

economic impact of wheatstone

creating enduring benefits to Australia

$50 billion

boost in state and federal government revenues from 2009 to 2040

$20 billion+

spent on local goods and services through 300 contracts with Australian companies since 2009*

7,000+

workers directly employed during peak construction

30,000+

direct and indirect full-time equivalent job years created over the project's lifetime

In 2015, Chevron commissioned a study conducted by ACIL Allen Consulting for projects Chevron has invested in and our other activities in Australia. All economic forecasts are from 2009-2040 and are presented in real dollars.

Based on the Wheatstone Project Cumulative Report on local content calculated in June 2017.*

learn more about the wheatstone project at chevronaustralia.com/wheatstone